2. Payments and Fees

2.1 The Board shall determine the Membership Fees and the Schedule of Benefits and may review and amend them at its absolute discretion.

2.2 The Board may amend these Terms and Conditions at any time.

3. Claim Eligibility

3.1 A Member who experiences a Relevant Event may submit a Claim in the form and manner required by PBF.

3.2 The Member bears the onus of providing all information, medical evidence and documentation reasonably required by the Board to assess the Claim.

3.3 No Benefit is payable, where at the time of the Relevant Event the Membership had not commenced.

3.4 The Board may, in its absolute discretion:

- a) approve or decline a Claim in whole or in part;
- b) require independent medical assessment by a Nominated Medical Practitioner; and
- c) request any further evidence it considers necessary.

3.5 The decision of the Board is final and binding, subject only to any rights available under applicable law.

4.Relevant Event

4.1 A Relevant Event means a traumatic physical Injury to the spinal cord resulting in Total Permanent Paraplegia or Total Permanent Tetraplegia, certified by the Nominated Medical Practitioner as permanent and irreversible.

4.2 An Injury must:

- a) be caused by violent, external, and visible means;
- b) occur during the Period of Membership; and
- c) result solely and independently of any other cause, including any pre-existing or congenital condition.

4.3 No Benefit is payable where the Relevant Event arises directly or indirectly from:

- a) illness or disease;
- b) aggravation of a pre-existing injury or condition;
- c) war, hostilities, invasion, terrorism, or military disturbance;
- d) intentional self-injury, suicide, attempted suicide, or criminal acts;
- e) flying other than as a passenger in a licensed aircraft;
- f) drug use not prescribed by a legally qualified medical practitioner, or operating a vehicle or vessel while over the prescribed legal blood alcohol limit;
- g) professional or amateur motor racing (excluding untimed rally or charity events);
- h) radioactive contamination; or
- i) pregnancy, childbirth, miscarriage, or related complications.

4.4 A Member must notify PBF in writing of a Relevant Event within twenty-eight (28) days of its occurrence.

4.5 Any Benefit approved shall be determined in accordance with the Schedule of Benefits applicable at the time the Membership commenced and subject to these Terms and Conditions.

5.Eligible Members

5.1 Membership commences on the Start Date and continues for twelve (12) months until the Renewal Date.

5.3 Membership automatically ceases at the end of the event.

5.4 No Benefit is payable where the Member is aged 99 years or older at the time of the Relevant Event. All entitlements cease upon attaining 99 years of age, except where the Relevant Event occurred prior.

5.5 Any approved Benefit shall be paid within three (3) months of the Board's determination.

5.6 Where an eligible person is under 18 years of age, payment shall be made to the legal guardian.

6.Schedule of Benefits

6.1 Subject to these Terms and Conditions, an Eligible Member may be assessed to receive a Benefit up to the maximum amount specified in the Schedule of Benefits, being $250,000 at the date of issue of these Terms.

6.2 The Board retains absolute discretion in determining the amount payable, up to the applicable maximum.
